

DR. BULL'S DEATH MAY NOW BE EXPLAINED.

Body to Be Disinterred on Testimony Given by a Drug Clerk.

After eight months the mystery surrounding the death of Dr. George W. Bull, well known as a physician in this city, seems about to be cleared up. Relatives of the dead man were not satisfied with the statement of his second wife and the attending physician that his death, on June 14, 1898, was due to alcoholism, and prosecuted a search for evidence supporting a theory of foul play.

To-day they present the testimony of a drug clerk that he sold Mrs. Bull, who is now Mrs. George A. Mix, a quantity of mercury on the day the doctor died.

They will have the body disinterred and the District Attorney of Philadelphia, where Dr. Bull was buried, has consented to look into the case.

New Yorkers are numerous who still remember the sensational story of Dr. Bull's marriage, in 1885, to Lorraine P. Shaw, nee Lazlo Shaw, otherwise known as "Crazy Lizzie," a notorious woman of the city.

The doctor was a widower about fifty years old, and had five children. His first wife, Lorraine Shaw, married him on a spree in New York. His married life here was interrupted by the action of his children, who had him committed as an adult lunatic.

Clerk Sold Mercury. One of the doctor's subsequent fatal attacks was the last. He was in the city when he married in New York. He was in the city when he married in New York. He was in the city when he married in New York.

The doctor died in agony after severe convulsions. The cause of death as given in the certificate was acute pneumonia, but the physician who was called in the case admits that he made out this statement while believing himself that alcoholism was the real cause.

Dr. Bull's death was regarded from the first by his family as a matter of mystery. During the eighteen months since it occurred increasing efforts have been made to bring matters to the present working basis.

Died in Philadelphia. The doctor's release from Bellevue Hospital, to which institution he had been committed, was accomplished in January, 1898. He was committed there by the Philadelphia city authorities. He was committed there by the Philadelphia city authorities. He was committed there by the Philadelphia city authorities.

It was midnight when the man died. His wife was alone with him. The doctor who gave the certificate was called two hours later.

John W. E. York, of New York, who married one of Dr. Bull's daughters, insists that the body of the dead man shall now be disinterred at Holy Cross cemetery, where it was buried, and that a chemical analysis of the stomach be made.

District Attorney Rothermel, of Philadelphia, has said that he will counsel the Commonwealth in the case. It was to the latter official that Bessinger made his affidavit.

George A. Mix, to whom Mrs. Bull was married three months after her first husband's death, is a man of fifty-six, courtly and white-haired. The police say he is a noted drunk and hotel sneak, and forger, his picture being posted in numerous "rogue" galleries about the country.

Yet he and his wife have posed among Philadelphia's best people, have entertained well at their parties, and are active in the work of Christ's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Mix is now about thirty-eight years old, with traces of former beauty showing through lines of anxiety and care.

Free to the Ruptured

Dr. W. S. Rice, the Well-Known Authority, Sends a Trial of His Famous Method Free to All.

Dr. W. S. Rice, 80 W. Main St., Adams, N. Y., will send free to any one who is ruptured or knows of any person ruptured, whether a man, woman or child, a free trial of his famous method.

Jersey City Man Used a Table Top and Set It Up. J. P. Daly, of Jersey City, has inscribed and erected his own monument. He is a well-known resident of the Fifth Ward and a prominent Democrat.

Daly has for many years been known as a poet of no mean ability. His wife and daughter died a little less than one year ago, and since then he has been greatly cast down.

Daly took for the monument the top of a marble-top table which formerly ornamented his parlor, and he started to work with a will, completing the work two days ago. Placing the stone on his shoulder he carried it into the cemetery and set it at the head of the mound beneath which his dear ones are at rest.

The inscription on it is as follows: "In perpetual remembrance of Mary Daly, wife of John P. Daly, born in Dublin, Ireland, on the 24 day of May 18th, died on the 24th of November, 1899. Mary Daly, born in Ireland, died on the 24th of November, 1899. John P. Daly, born in Limerick City, Ireland, the 24th of May, 1830, died in peace after going through many trials and tribulations in this world. We must enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Amen." Then follow the names of the children and date.

of his famous home cure. It is a marvellous method, curing cases that defied hospitals, doctors, trusses, electricity and all else. Merely send your name and address and the free trial will be sent without any cost to you whatever. Dr. W. S. Rice, a well-known commercial traveler, was ruptured ten years, tried every truss on the market, partly made up his mind to undergo the danger of an operation, when by the greatest of good luck he tried Dr. Rice's method. He is now cured.

Mr. Youres says: "I tried Dr. Rice's method and it cured me. I did not use a day on the road. Hundreds of merchants and friends in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa know the wonderful fact that this remarkable method cured me, and I certainly feel thankful enough to tell other ruptured people how they may profit by my experience." Mr. Youres travels for Goodhart, Hartman & Co., and his address is 1511 Franklin St., Chicago.

Every ruptured person ought to send at once and make a trial of this method that cures without pain, danger, operation or loss of time. Write to-day.

There Isn't a Shoe Sale in New York to Equal This!

"Means" $4 Shoes Here $2.

There are lots of shoe sales being advertised lately. They all seem to be great bargain-giving events. Did you ever notice, though, that the brands were never mentioned, or on what account they became possessed of the socks? Lots of them are this way.

At the close of the season manufacturers have odd lots of last season's shapes on hand, and in order to get rid of them offer them at concessions. One might be justified even taking this in consideration, by buying shoes at such sales, if it were not possible to get the very latest in material, fashion and make of a celebrated brand at an even lower price than shoes advertised at special sales elsewhere.

In our James Means $4.00 Shoes we offer the greatest of modern shoe bargains. We have just received from the James Means factory a consignment of 3,000 pairs of the latest styles of fall and winter shoes for men. They are made with heavy-weight soles; either double or triple weight; every pair lined with either leather or drill throughout to the toes. Some of the styles are Dundee, Mott Haven, Regent, Comfort, Leathers—Sheldahl and Storm Calkins, Russia and Vici Kid. All sizes, at exactly half price.
